First time in Positions Berlin Art Fair, aquabitArt gallery presents artworks of Brazilian artist Paula Klien, showing the result of a recent rebuilding in her ten year old photographer career, after having earned recognition and distinction especially in the campaign and editorial fashion circuit.

Back to her primary artistic manifestation, Paula Klien resumes the inquisition to her universe of fine arts in 2016 and finds the millennial tradition of ink, the antithesis to her previous experience producing images with the use of technical apparatus and machines.

In her new experience, light and shadow are converted into a cornerstone of fluid and monochromatic abstracts. Conceptually, this investigation is in the field of art and spirituality, where the process becomes the tool for the quest of transcendence, timelessness, silence and surrender. The intimacy between spontaneity and control, action and inaction, visible and invisible, as forms, is unpredictable and limitless with no boundaries and unfolding by chance.

'Manifestation-works' reveal mysteries of the intangible explored by the artist. In her lyrical abstractionism, canvases and three dimensional objects get materialized in a homogeneous and elegant way, treading however raw lines with no props.

With the proposal of rereading the traditional 'Chinese Ink Painting', Paula Klien develops a very personal technique, turning into contemporary the classic version that has its origin in the influences of Chinese Taoist doctrine, by the principle of 'let it flow.'

Meet Paula on Saturday, 16th from 4 to 8pm at Booth B09 will be a special and unique possibility to be with the artist. We are looking forward meeting you at the fair!
