„UNMASKED #1“ überrascht uns als Angehörige der „Generation Maske“ mit Tiefgang und einer Hintergründigkeit, die das menschliche Versagen in der Gegenwart in seiner existentiellen Dimension begreift - formal stilvoll und wohltemperiert.“

UNMASKED #1

UNMASKED #1 is the first exhibition in the UNMASKED series with works by Margaret Hunter, Annette Selle and Hugo Stuber.

In UNMASKED, gallery artists come together for a dialogue that has not happened before in this constellation. The fact that the exhibition takes place in a very striking time for our society is reflected in the name. UNMASKED can be associated with many things - dropping the mask, showing one's true face, revealing oneself, but also with crossing boundaries and discovering the feeling of liberation.

The special perspective in Christoph Tannert's text, which places the exhibition in a global context, provides in its complete version background information on the works and the artists' careers. As an essential part of the exhibition concept, the text is given a well-lit window display and offers inspiring reading.

For the duration of the exhibition, artist talks will take place ONLINE and the series "2 minutes for ART" will provide a brief insight into the work of each artist.

"„UNMASKED #1“ surprises us as members of the “Generation Mask” with depth and a subtleness, which understands human failure in the present in its existential dimension - formally stylish and well-tempered.”
